ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce Claude M. Thomas, of Bourbon, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the Seventh District, subject to the action of the District Convention to be held in the city of Lexington, on Thursday, May 12, 1904.

Hon. C. M. Thomas Announces For Congress.

In this issue of the News Hon. C. M. Thomas announces as candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress of this, the Seventh District. He first made this announcement in a speech yesterday in the Quarterly Court room, which was crowded with Bourbon Democrats to listen to his severe arraignment of the Republican party. Mr. Thomas represented Bourbon for two terms in the Legislature, was elected elector for the State at large in 1888 and 1892, and had the honor of being the youngest State elector ever elected by either party. Under Cleveland's second administration he was Consul at Marseilles, France. In each case when he has served the people he has reflected honor upon himself and upon his constituents. He is an unswerving Democrat and no man in the district is better qualified to represent the Ashland District than Hon. Claude M. Thomas. He is a young statesman that would again bring back the prestige of this once noted district.

Easter Services.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The handsome edifice of the Christian church was crowded Sunday, both morning and night, to take part in the Easter services. Elder Carey Morgan was at his best, and preached two most excellent and appropriate sermons. The choir was one of the best ever heard in a local church. The features of the musical program were the solos by Mrs. Frank Fithian and Mr. Chas. Hill. Mrs. Fithian's voice is a sweet, clear, pure and cultivated soprano and her solo was highly enjoyed by the large congregation present. Mr. Hill possesses one of the richest baritone voices in this section of the country and his solo was greatly appreciated and complimented.

CATHOLIC.

The Easter services at the Catholic church are always very beautiful and impressive, and Sunday was no exception to the rule. Rev. Father Burke's sermon on "Christ's Passion and Death" was an exceptionally fine one. He began with the birth of Christ and ended with His resurrection. The following is the musical program rendered:

Kyrie St. Claire Gloria Concane Credo Concane Regina Coeli Hammerl Sanctus Concane Benedictus Farmer Agnus St. Claire The singing of Miss Mary Rossenfoff, soprano, and Miss Annie Gorey, alto, and Geo. Rossenfoff, baritone, was excellent, each of them possessing remarkably fine voices.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN.

The services at Second Presbyterian church Sunday were very impressive and appropriate for Easter. The Rev. Dr. Rutherford preached an eloquent and forceful sermon. The singing of the trio—Miss Annie Lee Washington, Mrs. W. A. Johnson and C. B. Mitchell, was very sweet and pleasing. The solos of the gifted songstress, Miss Annie Lee Washington, was simply beautiful and showed her lovely and highly cultivated voice to great advantage. Miss Francis Johnson's accompaniments on the pipe organ were quite a feature of the good music.

METHODIST.

At the Methodist church Sunday, as usual, the pastor, Rev. J. L. Clark, gave his congregation a fine sermon, which does not seem hard for this gentleman to do. The singing of the quartette, Mrs. H. A. Powers, Mrs. Tom Arkle, Mrs. Walter Clark and Fletcher Mann, was especially fine. Mrs. Powers' solo was unusually sweet and touching.

ST. PETER'S EPISCOPAL.

The usual beautiful Easter services of the Episcopal church were held at St. Peter's church Sunday, conducted by Rev. Mr. Abraham. The musical program was an elaborate one, and reflects much credit upon Miss Kate Lee Hooge, the organist.

IN MIDST OF BUBONIC.—Revs. John, Henry and Charles Forman, three brothers formerly of Mason county, now missionaries in India, are in the midst of the country stricken with the terrible bubonic plague. The Revs. Forman have been working in India for many years under the direction of the Southern Presbyterian Synod. They are near relatives of the late W. W. Forman, of this city.

PUTTING ON AIRS.—The Mayor of Carlisle has appointed a commission of three members of the city council to employ engineers and make plans and specifications for a $25,000 waterworks system. This is the proper caper. By all means let your city own the plant. We know whereof we speak.

Hays Comes Again.

Attorney General Hays issued a statement Tuesday night in response to Gov. Beckham's answer to his criticism on the Governor's veto of the bill allowing three assistants for the Attorney General's department at the yearly cost of $6,200. The Attorney General insists if the bill had become a law it would have saved the State money. He charges that the Governor approved the order paying $4,500 to three attorneys in the insurance franchise cases that brought not a cent of revenue to the State. He says if the Governor insists that part of the money already expended should be charged to the administrations of Govs. Bradley and Brown, he should assume the estimated cost of the unfinished work under the ex-Auditor, which is $60,000, which would make the annual cost $25,457.94.
